

SPECIALTY TRANSPORTATION BUSINESS

Southwest Idaho

THE COMPANY

Established for over 20 years in the Treasure Valley this Company is the premiere transportation specialist providing services for a diversified clientele both locally and nationally. The fleet is well maintained with all the upgrades and attributes needed to satisfy any client. The business has a solid reputation locally and nationally excelling in customer satisfaction. All drivers have obtained CDL licensing and have the experience necessary to provide safe, reliable transportation.

THE LOCATION

The central location is convenient to all areas of the Treasure valley; the building is customized for the business and includes large indoor temperature controlled parking and service bays for all vehicles. The showroom/office is "Class A" space with a large waiting and reception area. A new lease will be negotiated as part of the transaction.

THE STRENGTHS

The many strengths of this opportunity include being in business serving the area longer than any other company. All vehicles are kept in immaculate condition and parked/maintained inside. The relationships that have been forged with businesses, individuals and high profile clientele for over 20 years are another strong attribute; the business always strives to exceed customer expectations.

THE REASON FOR SELLING

Although the business has been a very good income producer for the Owner who has enjoyed running and growing the company, it is time to sell and pass the torch on to new ownership.

THE IDEAL BUYER

The opportunity would be ideal for a candidate from another transportation company interested in acquiring market share. An individual buyer should enjoy the transportation industry and be interested in continuing to provide excellent customer service.

COMMENTS

The business is very well organized and marketed; a new owner only needs to continue on with the business operations that are already successfully implemented.
