

SCREEN PRINTING AND EMBROIDERY BUSINESS

Boise, Idaho

THE COMPANY

This is a full-service custom active wear company that offers direct screen printing, embroidery, vinyl, heat transfers, and promotional products. The customer base is very loyal and diverse and provides a steady flow of revenue throughout the year. The company represents the best brands in the industry and a graphics and print department that customizes designs for their customers.

THE LOCATION

The business is strategically located to service the entire Treasure Valley. The shop has a great floor plan and a very favorable lease. The space highlights an impressive showroom with a good selection of samples and products, office space, and a separate production area ideally set up for printing and embroidery. There is plenty of room, equipment, and capacity to grow the business without relocating.

THE STRENGTHS

This business was originally established in 1989 and has built a solid brand, reputation and customer base within the community. For 30 years, individuals, schools, teams, clubs, churches, and businesses have been coming here to order their gear. They have become a top supplier of printed and embroidered wearables in Boise and beyond. The company is well known and prides itself on quality workmanship, fair prices, and prompt service. Reviews are very favorable on Google, Facebook, and Yelp. The company is truly powered by word of mouth, repeat customers and referrals.

THE REASON FOR SELLING

The owner has multiple businesses that have grown substantially and doesn't have the time necessary to grow this business. The current owner is willing to help assist and train the new owner for a smooth transition and the continual success of the business. Employees are in place and will consider working for the new owner if it's a good fit for both parties.

THE IDEAL BUYER

This would be an ideal opportunity for an individual or partnership with a high degree of marketing or sales skills. Industry experience would be beneficial but not necessary as there is a fully functioning staff employed. This is a great business if you enjoy working in a fast paced, light manufacturing environment where you get to work with your hands and provide a tangible product and a satisfying service for your customers. You'll have an opportunity to be creative and interact with a wide range of customers and build lasting relationships.

THE POSSIBILITIES

This is an expanding industry within a growing community. The custom active wear industry offers multiple marketing and sales opportunities (schools, teams, businesses, organizations, preprints, and events). With multiple automatic and manual printing presses in place, the company has the capacity to increase sales substantially.
